Permanency from a Child's Perspective
2011 Conference on Permanency

To a child in foster care, 12 months is an eternity. The longer permanency is delayed, the more challenging his or her future will be.

This conference seeks solutions for expediting the permanency process, including the child welfare and judicial process. Invited participants include judges, state's attorneys, parent and child legal representatives, service providers and child welfare professionals.

This conference is sponsored by the 7th Circuit Family Violence Coordinating Council and the Sangamon County Action Team (SCAT). The agencies involved with SCAT include The 7th Judicial Circuit of Illinois, Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, Sangamon County State's Attorneys Office, Lutheran Child and Family Services, Primed for Life, Triangle Center and Court Appointed Special Advocates (Sangamon County Child Advocacy Center).
